The Soul of Korea,
The National Library of Korea

China, Korea, and Japan initiated a joint effort to develop information communication technology at the 16th Conference of Directors of National Libraries in Asia and Oceania (CDNLAO).

- Due to increasing efforts to promote reading activities for children and young adults, there are much greater needs to support and strengthen collaboration with public libraries and school libraries based on the 2010 plan to promote and support the reading activities of children.

- Project report (2010–2011) based on the joint cooperation between researchers, practitioners, school librarians and the International Library of Children's Literature (ILCL) was recently completed (2012)

The Promotion of Reading Activities

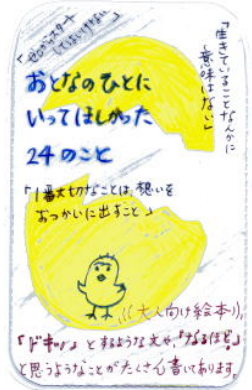

1. The promotion of reading activities before the first class of the day
2. The increased number of children and students who read books in a month

Hiroshima Prefectural Library

- Hiroshima Prefectural Library is located in the center of Hiroshima City.
- It plays a pivotal role as a lifelong learning center in Hiroshima province, conducting research and providing valuable assistance to contribute to the cultural enrichment in the area by organizing, gathering, and disseminating library materials and information, archiving the information, and accumulating data and collections, thereby providing manifold opportunities for accessing information and fostering citizens' reading activities.

- The library introduced a set of five core objectives, including collection organizing, learning and research support, network establishment, collaborative relationship building, and reading activity promotion for youth, and the Action Plan for Fostering Children’s Reading in Hiroshima (2003) in relation to language education on its webpage, “Library Net @ Hiroshima (raiburari net at Hiroshima).”
